

ACCESS TO CAPITAL: YOUR OPTIONS

With the outlook for the economy remaining uncertain and reduced access to traditional forms of funding, Barclays Wealth, in association with the London Stock Exchange, would like to invite you to an 'Access to Capital' breakfast seminar on 1st March 2012.

We will explore the various alternative funding options available to small and mid size companies as they seek to fund future growth. This event is an opportunity for business owners and entrepreneurs to hear from our panel of experts on how the best opportunities across seed capital, bank finance, business angels to venture capital, and the public markets can be maximised.

Our Panel members will include:

- Jenny Tooth, Director Angel Capital Group
