Swedish Product Notice

Change of strike price interval for Swedish Stock Options

EDX London in conjunction with OMX Derivatives Markets will change the strike price interval used for listing of new option series on the Swedish market as of Friday 14 December 2007. All automatically generated series will have the following strike price intervals:

New Exercise Interval

Exercise price (SEK)			Term ≤ 6 months	Term > 6 months
0	-	6	0.5	1
6	-	30	1	2
30	-	50	2	4
50	-	150	5	10
150	-	310	10	20
310	-	510	20	40
510	-		30	60

The following underlyings are, at present, in intervals that will be affected by the change:

Underlying	Exercise price (SEK)	Change of interval Term ≤ 6 months (SEK)	Change of interval Term > 6 months (SEK)
Securitas Direct B, Securitas Systems B, Lundin Petroleum, TeliaSonera	30-50	2.5 to 2	No change
Securitas Direct B, Securitas Systems B, Ericsson B	10-30	No change	4 to 2
Lundin Petroleum, Husqvarna, Eniro, Fabege	50-60	2.5 to 5	No change
Alfa Laval, MTG, H&M	310-330	No change	20 to 40

The generation of new series as described will only apply where new expiration months are listed, or where new strike prices are generated as a consequence of share price movements. Therefore, these changes will not result in new series being created between existing strike intervals.
