EDX London IT Notice 014/07 - EDX London offers Proximity Services.

25 June 2007

EDX London offers Proximity Services.

EDX London would like to inform its members that the OMX Nordic Exchange has introduced a new offering, Proximity Services. This service has been developed to facilitate algorithmic trading strategies and to minimize overall latency.

Proximity Services will allow EDX London members to place their trading equipment within the Nordic Exchange's trading and market data infrastructure.

The Proximity Services will be offered in a number of different packages with different scope and service levels, but all with the same low network latency.

More information.

For further information concerning this IT Notice or a more detailed overview of this service, please contact EDX London Member Services on +44 (0)20 7797 4333.
