Introduction

1. On 10 July 2018, London Stock Exchange (the “Exchange”) published Stock Exchange Notice N13/18 (the “Notice”), which set out the framework for the Shanghai-London Stock Connect Segment and the associated amendments to the Admission and Disclosure Standards for the trading of Chinese A-shares’ depositary receipts (“DRs”) to be admitted to the Main Market and traded through the Exchange’s International Order Book trading service.

2. The Notice also included further proposed changes to the Admission and Disclosure Standards.

Feedback on the consultation

3. Having considered the limited response, no additional changes are required. Accordingly, the changes in the consultation document will be adopted in full. Attachment 1 to this Notice contains the amended Admission and Disclosure Standards.

Effective date

4. The amendments to the Admission and Disclosure Standards will become effective from 1 October 2018.
